Community Profile

The City of Plymouth, also known as the Cheese Capital of the World, is home to four of the country's major cheese processing plants: Great Lakes Cheese, Master Gallery Foods, Sargento, and Sartori Food. Plymouth strives to be proactive in its growth planning while preserving its historical heritage and family-friendly environment for generations. Located just east of the Kettle Moraine State Forest and right along the Mullet River, Plymouth is a recreational destination offering a unique blend of single-family homes, scenic agricultural land, and historic and recreational downtown. Lakeland University provides a unique and competitive post-secondary liberal arts education to nearly 3,500 students across 24 countries. Plymouth's revitalized and vibrant downtown is lined with unique shops, eateries, and boutiques.

Government Structure

The City of Plymouth is governed by a Mayor and Common Council. The Common Council is the legislative branch of the City government. The Common Council is the forum for reviewing and debating proposed ordinances, resolutions, and policies proposed by the standing Council committees, boards, and commissions. The most important legislation is the annual City budget. The Common Council is comprised of eight part-time alderpersons representing four aldermanic districts. Each alderperson serves a two-year term. The Council operates on a committee structure, with the following standing committees: Committee of the Whole, Finance & Personnel Committee, and Public Works & Utilities Committee. In addition to the Council committees, there are a number of boards and commissions that provide policy input to the Mayor and Common Council and are comprised of citizen members and alderperson representation.
