RANDOM LAKE, WISCONSIN

Community Profile

Random Lake is a prosperous village in southwest Sheboygan County centered by a 209-acre lake, the county's second-largest. Random Lake is close to all the county's happenings and is just 45 minutes north of Milwaukee. The lake is regarded as the Village's most valuable asset, with residents coming together to enjoy swimming, fishing, boating, and water skiing. Beyond its natural beauty, Random Lake boasts a prosperous business park, a comprehensive and challenging school district, unique family-friendly events and fairs, charming restaurants, and a genuine small-town atmosphere.

Government Structure

The Village of Random Lake operates under the laws of the State of Wisconsin. The Board consists of the Village President and six trustees. The members of the Board of Trustees are elected at large by the Village of Random Lake's registered voters to serve two-year staggered terms. As elected officials, the Village Board is responsible to the residents of Random Lake. The Board adopts ordinances, resolutions, budgets, goals, and policies of the Village.
