WALDO, WISCONSIN

Community Profile

Waldo is a small village located right in the middle of Sheboygan County along the Onion River at the intersection of Hwy 57 and Hwy 28. A small village with a rich history, Waldo is a beautiful community perfect for raising families and growing businesses. Home to many family-owned businesses, local staples like Chrissy's Pub and Grille, and the Waldo Mill Pond, the village is a hidden gem of Sheboygan County.

Government Structure

The Village of Waldo operates under the laws of the State of Wisconsin. The Board consists of the Village President and four trustees. The members of the Board of Trustees are elected at large by the Village of Waldo's registered voters to serve two-year staggered terms. As elected officials, the Village Board is responsible to the residents of Waldo. The Board adopts ordinances, resolutions, budgets, goals, and policies of the Village.
